EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES
Support one of the world’s most innovative and beloved public spaces.

With multiple experiences available throughout the year, the High Line offers opportunities to build camaraderie, connect with nature, and learn more about New York City. Employee engagement opportunities are available at multiple levels of support under the following categories:

Volunteering
Wellness
Workshops & Tours
Mentoring
Events
Throughout the High Line’s history, dedicated corporate volunteers have helped make the park a success.

Spring Cutback: $25,000
Assemble a team of up to 20 employees to take part in the High Line’s largest and most important annual horticulture effort. Employees will work together with the High Line’s expert gardeners to cut back grasses and perennials in the park to make room for spring blooms to emerge. Refreshments are provided.

Available during March

Clean-Up Tours: $5,000
Assemble up to 20 employees for a clean-up tour of the High Line. Employees will stop at various points along the tour to clear the pathway of debris. In between each clean-up, they will learn about the park’s sustainability practices. Refreshments are provided.

Available from May to October

Summer Weeding Sessions: $10,000
Gather a team of up to 20 employees for a weeding session on the High Line. Employees will clear the gardens of weeds and receive a lesson on the High Line’s commitment to low-impact and sustainable gardening practices. Refreshments are provided.

Available from June to August

Everyone is encouraged to use the High Line as a space for wellness.

Guided Meditation: $5,000
Organize a guided meditation session on the High Line for up to 20 employees. Refreshments are provided.

Available year-round

Fitness: Free
Individual runners and groups of up to 20 employees can take advantage of the solitude of the High Line during morning hours. The 1.45-mile park opens daily at 7am, making it the perfect location for jogging, walking, stretching, or relaxing before the workday begins.

Available year-round
Discover the art, history, design, and horticulture of the High Line. Special tours and workshops are available for corporate groups.

High Line Leadership Tours:
$25,000
Assemble up to 20 employees for an exclusive tour led by High Line leadership — including our chief curator and horticulture director. Tours provide an inside look at the High Line’s gardens, history, art, and more. Refreshments are provided.

Available from April to November

Seasonal Horticulture Workshops & Tours: $10,000
Gather a team of up to 20 employees for a hands-on horticulture workshop. Afterward, take part in an exclusive tour focused on the park’s unique landscape. Refreshments are provided.

Available during February, May, August, and November

High Line Docent Tours:
pricing varies
Groups of up to 20 employees can organize private tours on the High Line. These intimate experiences led by High Line docents can be tailored to the group’s interests in New York City history, design, horticulture, art, and more.

Available year-round

See tour fees →

Flower Arranging Workshops:
$250 per person
Gather a group of up to 20 employees for a flower arranging workshop at the High Line. Employees will learn the basics of flower arranging and create their own beautiful pieces to take home or to the office. Refreshments are provided.

Available from May to October

Corporate groups can make a lasting impact through mentoring sessions with High Line staff, teens, and interns.

Speed Mentoring: $25,000
Invite 5 employees to lead a speed mentoring session for High Line teens and interns. Employees are encouraged to discuss their career paths and any skills they have harnessed to advance their careers. Teens and interns will gain insightful knowledge to help them polish their resumes and prepare for college and the workforce. Refreshments are provided.

Available from February to May

Professional Development: $10,000
Invite 5 employees to lead a professional development session for High Line staff. The session may cover general business topics such as financial literacy, website development, and other digital skills. Refreshments are provided.

Available from November to February

From views of the Hudson River to the industrial design elements of the railway’s past, High Line venues offer an unrivaled setting for corporate events.

Take Your Child To Work Day:
$25,000
For High Line neighbors only. Collaborate with High Line educators to organize a hands-on activity for up to 20 children on national Take Your Child to Work Day. The High Line’s unique and inspiring atmosphere is the perfect setting for children of all ages to play, create, and learn together.
Available on April 23, 2020

Earth Week Weeding Session:
$5,000
To celebrate Earth Day’s 50th Anniversary in 2020, we’re hosting off-site morning weeding sessions on Monday, April 20 through Friday, April 24. Assemble a team of 10 employees to participate in one of these group weeding sessions at a local community garden, which High Line staff will facilitate. Refreshments are provided.
Available from April 20-24, 2020

Corporate Family Day:
pricing varies
Host a corporate family day on the High Line. Make it a quintessentially “High Line” event by having the park’s food vendors cater the event, and by incorporating the children’s workyard kit, a collection of 250 pieces — including wooden planks, ropes, bolts, and pulleys — that encourages exploration, critical thinking, and problem-solving.
Available year-round
Rental rates vary based on venue(s) chosen
